2015 BREAKTHROUGH SEASON

At 6-foot 3-inches Steve Wheatcroft is one of the biggest golfers on the PGA Tour and has the outgoing personality and record-breaking game to match. The man everyone affectionately calls 'Wheatie' is responsible for two of the most dominating performances in the history of the Web.com Tour -- and in 2015 he came within inches of a WIN on golf's biggest stage.

Wheatie's 2nd place finish at the Humana Challenge kick-started a season which has seen him play deep into the weekend in more than 2/3rds of his starts.

Wheatcroft's birdie runs are legendary. At the 2014 Albertsons Boise Open Wheatie posted 28-birdies on the way to a winning score of 24-under par. At the 2011 Prince George's County Open Wheatie shattered record-books with a 12-stroke margin of victory. His winning score of 29-under par was a first.

The man from Indiana Pennsylvania -- who went to Indiana University -- is equally respected and beloved by his fellow pros, the media, his sponsors and fans alike for his hysterical and insightful sense of humor. Golf Channel dubbed him "One of the Top-10 Tweeters to Watch" and it is easy to see why as he shares his life inside and outside the ropes with all. Team Wheatie.. the next best thing to being there.

To my followers, this isn't me at the World Cup. It's some guy named Ronaldo. I know we look alike, but it's not me.

Happy to report that my son has taken after my fitness prowess and has gotten into yoga. Holy downward dog batman.
